

Figure 1. Results from structural equation modeling of children's social competence predicted by maternal authoritative parenting, supportive maternal responses and children's constructive coping strategies. Dotted lines represent non-significant paths.

Note: *, , and  represent significance at the 5%, 1%, and 0.01% levels, respectively.