

Exercise 3:

- 1) What festivals do you celebrate? How do you celebrate them?
- 2) How many days of holidays do you get for celebrating those festivals?
- 3) Undertake the following a project in pair/groups:

Find a family from ethnic minority backgrounds in Hong Kong. Inquire about their festivals asking them how they celebrate the festivals, when they celebrate, what they do, and whether or not they think they should be given holidays during their festivals. Write a short report, and present the findings to your class.
