

Hong Kong Education Image Database Revamped 香港教育數碼圖像資料庫全面更新

The Library and Hong Kong Museum of Education (HKME) are pleased to present the new "Hong Kong Education Image Database". The design, structure, navigation and functionality have been optimized for enhanced user-friendliness. Major new features include:

- New responsive web design supporting most desktop and mobile devices
- Improved search functions
- Filtering of search results
- Keyword highlights in search results
- Social media sharing

Jointly developed by the Library and HKME in 2011, the "Hong Kong Education Image Database" collects and organizes images of artefacts, photos, manuscripts, printed materials, etc. relating to education in Hong Kong. It not only supports learning, teaching and research on Hong Kong education, but also preserves HKME collections in digital formats. International museum standards have been adopted for the cataloguing and creation of metadata. Images and their metadata can be accessed online globally by anyone interested in education in Hong Kong.

The Database can be accessed either from Library Website (www.lib.eduhk.hk) or HKME Website (www.museum.eduhk.hk). It can also be accessed directly at https://imagedb.museum.eduhk.hk . Please feel free to e-mail your comments and suggestions to HKME at hkme@eduhk.hk.

圖書館及香港教育博物館推出了全新的《香港教育數碼圖像資料庫》・不單改善了版面設計、網站結構、導 航,更提供更多功能,讓用戶更方便快捷地查找所需資料。主要的新增功能包括:
