

USER GUIDE for Naxos Spoken Word Library

It consists of more than 1,000 tracks of spoken word on classic novels, plays, poetry and non-fiction literature from medieval times to the 20th century. Texts on the literature are available on screen along with the spoken presentation.

[Note: Recommended Browser - Internet Explorer 7+, Firefox 2+, Safari 2+,
Chrome (any version with Flash support)]

1. Browse/Search

The screenshot shows the Naxos Spoken Word Library homepage. At the top, there is a 'Keyword Search' box with a 'Search' button. Below the search box is a navigation menu with links: 'New Releases', 'Recent Additions', 'Readers / Actors', 'Authors', 'English Titles', 'French Titles', 'German Titles', 'Labels', 'Bookmarks', and 'Advanced Search'. A 'Featured Titles' section displays several book covers, including 'Jacob's Room', 'Middlemarch', 'The Mill on the Floss', 'Moby Dick', 'To the Lighthouse', and 'The Count of Monte Cristo'. On the left side, there is a 'Note' box and a 'Category browse' list.

1. Browse/Search

2. Browse by Readers/Actors, Author, Titles List, Labels, etc.

Note: Naxos Spoken Word library (NSWL) app is also available in iPhone and iPad.

3. Or click here to filter titles by Category browse the title list.

1. Type keyword in the search field, e.g. Author, Reader, Title, ISBN etc

2. Advanced Search

The screenshot shows the 'Advanced Search' page. It features a 'Catalogue No.' search box and an 'Advanced Search' section. The 'Advanced Search' section has three fields: '1 Author', '2 Reader', and '3 Genre and Categories'. Each field has a magnifying glass icon and a dropdown arrow. Below the fields is a 'Search Now' button and a 'Clear the Form' button. A 'Note' at the bottom explains the search process.

1. Enter keyword into the appropriate fields

2. Browse and select recommended criteria

3. Click Search Now

Note:

- > If you are searching for a particular title, please type the title into the Keyword Search box, located at the top right corner of every page in NSWL.
- > = browse and select recommended criteria

2. Search Result

1. Click on the title, a new window containing the track list, CD cover and control buttons will appear.

2. Click the box to select the tracks and click Play Selections to play from the selected tracks.

3. Click on Play All to begin playing the first track.

4. The notes include information on the author, composer, works as well as artists ((Note: this feature is not available for all titles))

The screenshot shows the search results for 'little women'. A callout points to the title 'Little Women (Abridged)'. Another callout points to the 'Play Selections' button. A third callout points to the 'Play All' button. A fourth callout points to the author information and notes for 'The Garden Party'.

3. Playing a CD

You can print out the notes by clicking Print

The full text of titles marked with a can be followed on screen as it is being read. For the time-being, only titles with a have texts displayed on screen. More texts are added regularly.

Use the Media Player to stop, play, pause, forward or backward tracks.

The screenshot shows the audio player interface for 'The Garden Party'. The text of the story is displayed on the left, and the track list is on the right. A callout points to the 'Print' icon in the top right corner. Another callout points to the media player controls at the bottom.